Ivan Brown
Plaintiff,

v

Case Number:

State of Minnesota
Keith Ellison Attorney General
State Senate of MN

Defendant,

State House of Representatives
Ramsey County Child Support, MN.

For 14 years I have been on Child Support.
 The VA took over in 2012 it was started in 2011. The State of Minnesota has Placed itself above the Federal government ~~to~~ I have dealt with this for far too long.
 At this point I should have a 0 balance due to being a 100% disabled vet. They (mn) say that my VA Check is considered to be income when Congress said it's not. I pleaded and begged thru the years. The enclosed documents speak for themselves. In my last hearing with MN they said 20% ~~interest~~ interest 75 per month fee and plus or minus. They (mn) would file a restraining order each hearing that keep me from seeing my child. I am asking for $100,000,000 to end this treatment to future Vets.

Minnesota has committed ~~Racketeering~~ Racketeering and Extortion. Racketeering by ignoring the VA, Clayton County Court and Congress. They tried to pressure me to pay what they asked when the VA sent them a letter in 2014 outlining that they (VA) had taken the Case. Instead they suspended my license and tried to get me arrested in Clayton County GA Then stated they would not honor any out of State Courts. I am a 100% Disabled Vet.
Congress has spoken and they wrote their own laws. I would like back to have MN.
11th Amendment suspended in this case.
